PROJECTS

FYP, Web Application
Experienced in spearheading Stitchery, a versatile platform that seamlessly combines the purchase and tailoring of clothing and accessories. Proficient in React, Flask, and MySQL, overseeing the Admin, Tailor, User, and Rider roles to ensure a streamlined and efficient experience for all users.

Hotel Managment, Web Application

Incorporating HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, and jQuery into your web application can result in an amazing layout with interactive functionality. When users book a room, you can utilize JavaScript and jQuery to display a confirmation message for their reservation, enhancing the user experience. With the combination of these technologies, you can create a visually appealing and dynamic web application that effectively handles room reservations.
